

- 1. The Fall of Jerusalem (70)
- 2. The Council of Nicaea (325)
- 3. The Council of Chalcedon (451)
- 4. Benedict's Rule (530)
- 5. The Coronation of Charlemagne (800)
- 6. The Great Schism (1054)
- 7. The Diet of Worms (1521)
- 8. The English Act of Supremacy (1534)
- 9. The Founding of the Jesuits (1540)
- 10. The Conversion of the Wesleys (1738)
- 11. The French Revolution (1789)
- 12. The Edinburgh Missionary Conference (1910)
- 13. The Second Vatican Council (1962–65)

Introduction to History

- What is History?

Introduction to History

- What is History?
  - History is not what happened in the past
    - history is an interpretation of what happened based on limited information

Introduction to History

- What is History?
  - History is not what happened in the past
    - history is an interpretation of what happened based on limited information
    - history is more complicated than we realize

Introduction to History

- What is History?
  - History is not what happened in the past
    - history is an interpretation of what happened based on limited information
    - history is more complicated than we realize
    - sources for history
      - types
        - primary sources
        - secondary sources
      - which is better?

Introduction to History

- What is History?
  - History is not what happened in the past
    - history is an interpretation of what happened based on limited information
    - history is more complicated than we realize
    - sources for history
      - types
        - primary sources
        - secondary sources
      - which is better?
  - much of accepted history contains significant errors

In

Isaiah 14:24-27

The Lord of hosts has sworn: "As I have planned, so shall it be, and as I have purposed, so shall it stand, that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains trample him underfoot; and his yoke shall depart from them, and his burden from their shoulder."

This is the purpose that is purposed concerning the whole earth, and this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. For the Lord of hosts has purposed, and who will annul it? His hand is stretched out, and who will turn it back?

- What is History?

- History is not what happened

- history is an interpretation
    - history is more complex
    - sources for history

- types

- primary sources
        - secondary sources

- which is better?

- much of accepted history contains significant errors

- History is the unfolding of God's plan and purposes

In

Isaiah 14:24-27

The Lord of hosts has sworn: "As I have planned, so shall it be, and as I have purposed, so shall it stand, that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains trample him underfoot; and his yoke shall depart from them, and his burden from their shoulder."

This is the purpose that is purposed concerning the whole earth, and this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. For the Lord of hosts has purposed, and who will annul it? His hand is stretched out, and who will turn it back?

- What is History?

- History is not what happened

- history is an interpretation
    - history is more complex than what happened
    - sources for history

- types

- primary sources
        - secondary sources

- which is better?

- much of accepted history contains significant errors

- History is the unfolding of God's plan and purposes

- people and human events are secondary

- people and human events receive most of the attention in works of history

Isaiah 14:24-27

The Lord of hosts has sworn: "As I have planned, so shall it be, and as I have purposed, so shall it stand, that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains trample him underfoot; and his yoke shall depart from them, and his burden from their shoulder." This is the purpose that is purposed concerning the whole earth, and this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. For the Lord of hosts has purposed, and who will annul it? His hand is stretched out, and who will turn it back?

- What is History?
  - History is not what it seems
    - history is an interpretation
    - history is more complex
    - sources for history
      - types
        - primary sources
        - secondary sources
      - which is better?
    - much of accepted history contains significant errors
  - History is the unfolding of God's plan and purposes
    - people and human events are secondary
    - people and human events receive most of the attention in works of history
    - history = His Story
      - beginning with the creation
      - concluding with the second coming and final judgment

Prov. 19:21 Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the LORD that will stand.

Introduction to History

- What is History?
  - History is the unfolding of God's plan and purposes
    - people and human events are secondary
    - people and human events receive most of the attention in works of history
    - history = His Story
      - beginning with the creation
      - concluding with the second coming and final judgment
- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?

Introduction to History

- What is History?
  - History is the unfolding of God's plan and purposes
    - people and human events are secondary
    - people and human events receive most of the attention in works of history
    - history = His Story
      - beginning with the creation
      - concluding with the second coming and final judgment
- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?
    - Christianity does not simply consist of
      - a moral code to guide our behavior
      - a worldview to understand our place in the world
      - a set of doctrines to believe

Introduction to History

- What is History?
  - History is the unfolding of God's plan and purposes
    - people and human events are secondary
    - people and human events receive most of the attention in works of history
    - history = His Story
      - beginning with the creation
      - concluding with the second coming and final judgment
- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?
    - Christianity does not simply consist of
      - a moral code to guide our behavior
      - a worldview to understand our place in the world
      - a set of doctrines to believe

Introduction to History

- What is History?
  - History is the unfolding of God's plan and purposes
    - people and human events are secondary
    - people and human events receive most of the attention in works of history
    - history = His Story
      - beginning with the creation
      - concluding with the second coming and final judgment
- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?
    - Christianity does not simply consist of
      - a moral code to guide our behavior
      - a worldview to understand our place in the world
      - a set of doctrines to believe
    - We are members of the Church
      - not just CPC
      - not just the church around the world today
      - but the universal Church ἐκκλησία

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?
    - Christianity does not simply consist of
      - a moral code to guide our behavior
      - a worldview to understand our place in the world
      - a set of doctrines to believe
  - We are members of the Church
    - not just CPC
    - not just the church around the world today
    - the universal Church ἐκκλησία
      - all people of faith: Heb. 11

Heb. 11:13 These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?
    - Christianity does not simply consist of
      - a moral code to guide our behavior
      - a worldview to understand our place in the world
      - a set of doctrines to believe
  - We are members of the Church
    - not just CPC
    - not just the church around the world today
    - the universal Church ἐκκλησία
      - all people of faith: Heb. 11
      - terms for the church
        - Israel
        - offspring

Rom. 9:6-8 But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but “Through Isaac shall your offspring be named.” This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring.

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?

- Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?

- Christianity does not simply consist of

- a moral code to guide our behavior
- a worldview to understand our place in the world
- a set of doctrines to believe

- We are members of the Church

- not just CPC
- not just the church around the world today
- the universal Church ἐκκλησία
  - all people of faith: Heb. 11
  - terms for the church
    - Israel
    - offspring
    - household of faith
    - household of God
    - assembly of the firstborn

Gal. 6:10 let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Eph. 2:19-20 you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets.

Heb. 12:23 to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven ...

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?
    - We are members of the Church
      - not just CPC
      - not just the church around the world today
      - the universal Church ἐκκλησία
        - all people of faith: Heb. 11
        - terms for the church
          - Israel
          - offspring
          - household of faith
          - household of God
          - assembly of the firstborn
    - the Church is a historical community
      - for accountability
      - for worship and service
      - to help us interpret Scripture
      - to help us understand politics, science, war, music, economics, etc.

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?
    - We are members of the Church
      - the Church is a community
        - for accountability
        - for worship and service
        - to help us interpret Scripture
        - to help us understand politics, science, war, music, economics, etc.
  - Unlike other religions, the Christian faith is rooted in history
    - God entered history
      - special revelation, e.g., The Law“

Ex. 20:2 I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt...

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?
    - We are members of the Church
      - the Church is a community
        - for accountability
        - for worship and service
        - to help us interpret Scripture
        - to help us understand politics, science, war, music, economics, etc.
  - Unlike other religions, the Christian faith is rooted in history
    - God entered history
      - special revelation, e.g., The Law
      - “The Word became flesh”
        - incarnation + 33 years
        - crucifixion, resurrection, ascension

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?
    - We are members of the Church
      - the Church is a community
        - for accountability
        - for worship and service
        - to help us interpret Scripture
        - to help us understand politics, science, war, music, economics, etc.
  - Unlike other religions, the Christian faith is rooted in history
    - God entered history
      - special revelation, e.g., The Law
      - “The Word became flesh”
        - incarnation + 33 years
        - crucifixion, resurrection, ascension
    - we are part of history
      - to glorify God
      - to be his witnesses

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - Isn't the Bible the only thing I need to study as a Christian?
    - We are members of the Church
      - the Church is a community
        - for accountability
        - for worship and service
        - to help us interpret Scripture
        - to help us understand politics, science, war, music, economics, etc.
  - Unlike other religions, the Christian faith is rooted in history
    - God entered history
      - special revelation, e.g., The Law
      - “The Word became flesh”
        - incarnation + 33 years
        - crucifixion, resurrection, ascension
    - we are part of history
      - to glorify God
      - to be his witnesses
  - To better understand the works of God and praise him for them

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - Unlike other religions, the Christian faith is rooted in history
    - we are part of history
      - to glorify God
      - to be his witnesses
  - To better understand the works of God and praise him for them
  - To learn from those who have gone before us
    - their faith
    - their perseverance
    - their contributions
    - their failures and errors

Rom. 15:4 For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

1 Cor. 10:11 Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end of the ages has come.

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - Unlike other religions, the Christian faith is rooted in history
    - we are part of history
      - to glorify God
      - to be his witnesses
  - To better understand the works of God and praise him for them
  - To learn from those who have gone before us
    - their faith
    - their perseverance
    - their contributions
    - their failures and errors
  - To see ourselves as created by God for a purpose in history

ACTS 13:36 FOR DAVID, AFTER HE HAD SERVED THE PURPOSE OF GOD IN HIS OWN GENERATION . . .

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - Unlike other religions, the Christian faith is rooted in history
    - we are part of history
      - to glorify God
      - to be his witnesses
  - To better understand the works of God and praise him for them
  - To learn from those who have gone before us
    - their faith
    - their perseverance
    - their contributions
    - their failures and errors
  - To see ourselves as created by God for a purpose in history
  - To help us teach our children

Psalm 78:3-4

Things that we have heard and known, that our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - To better understand the works of God and praise him for them
  - To learn from those who have gone before us
    - their faith
    - their perseverance
    - their contributions
    - their failures and errors
  - To see ourselves as created by God for a purpose in history
  - To help us teach our children
- What is a Turning Point?

A critical decision, key event, or pivotal issue that appears to have significantly altered the course of history

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - To better understand the works of God and praise him for them
  - To learn from those who have gone before us
    - their faith
    - their perseverance
    - their contributions
    - their failures and errors
  - To see ourselves as created by God for a purpose in history
  - To help us teach our children
- What is a Turning Point?

A critical decision, key event, or pivotal issue that appears to have significantly altered the course of history.
- Background of Judean politics

Cyrus invaded Greece (Ionia), 547BC

Babylon falls to Darius, the Mede, 539BC

Jews return, ~539-~445 (Nehemiah)

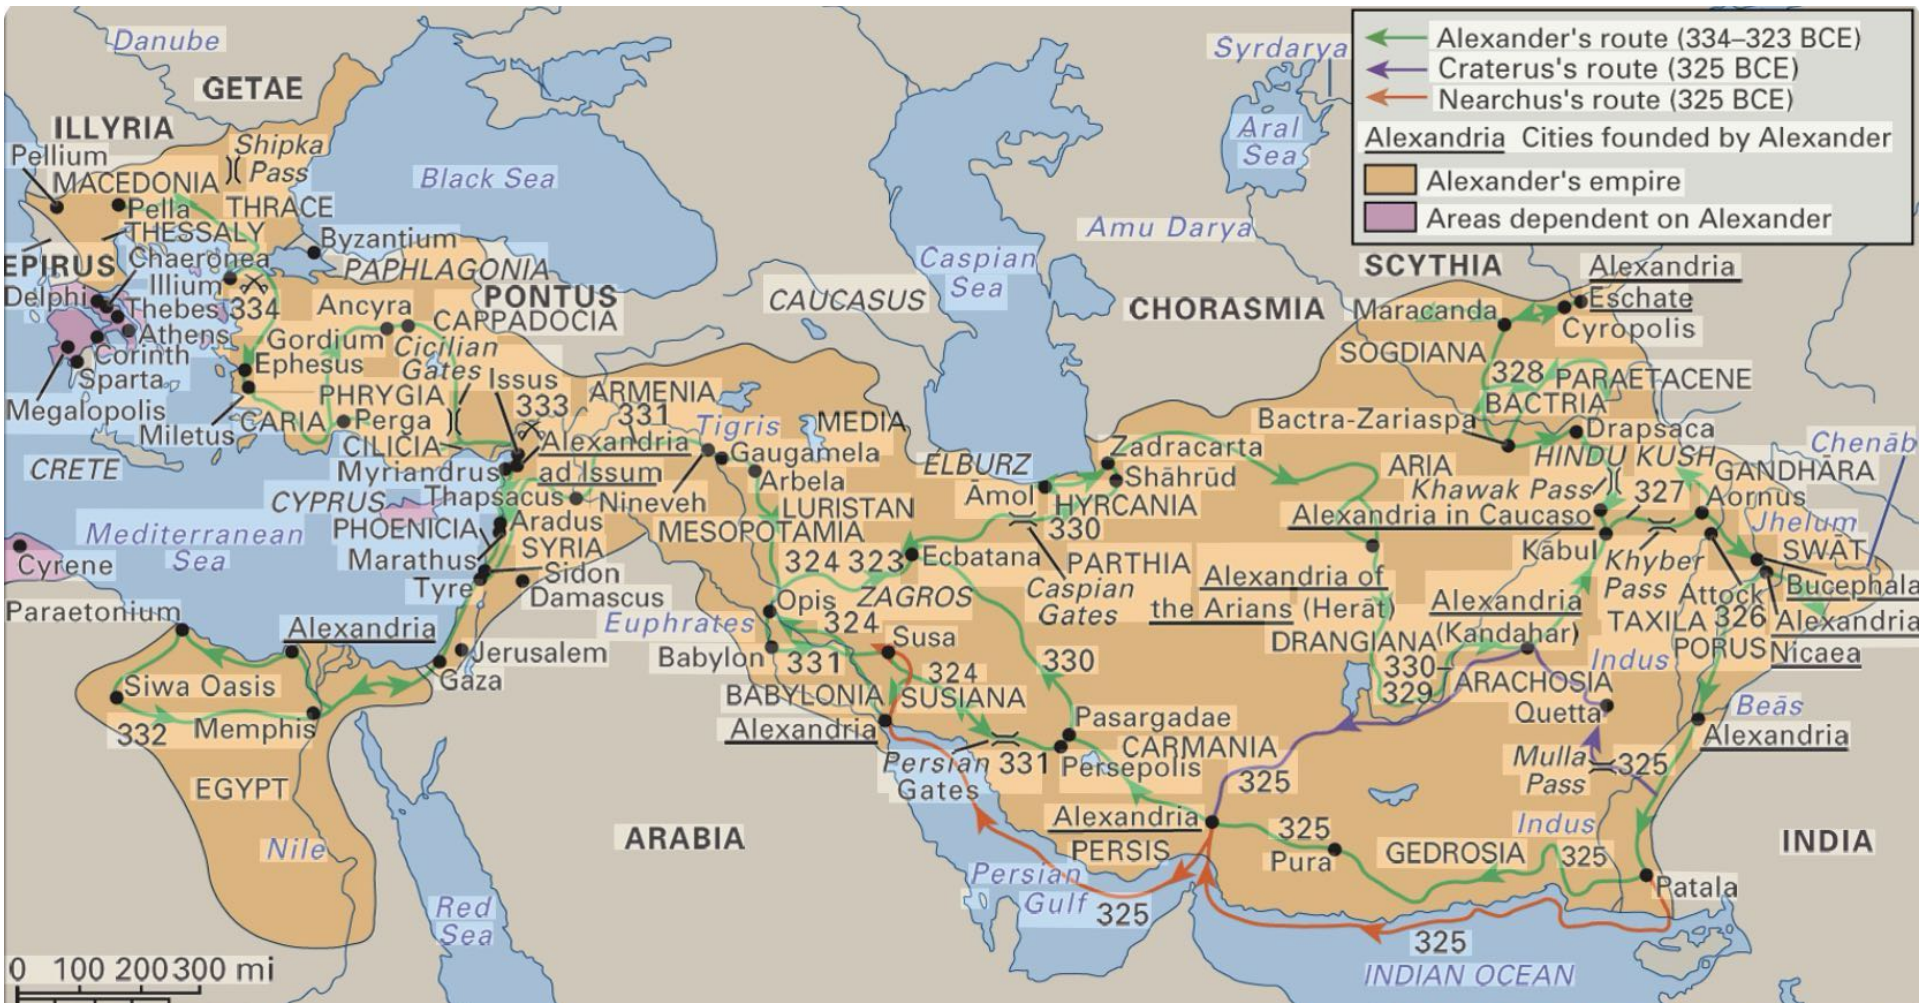

Esther becomes queen, ~480 BC

Persia battles Greece, 499-449 BC

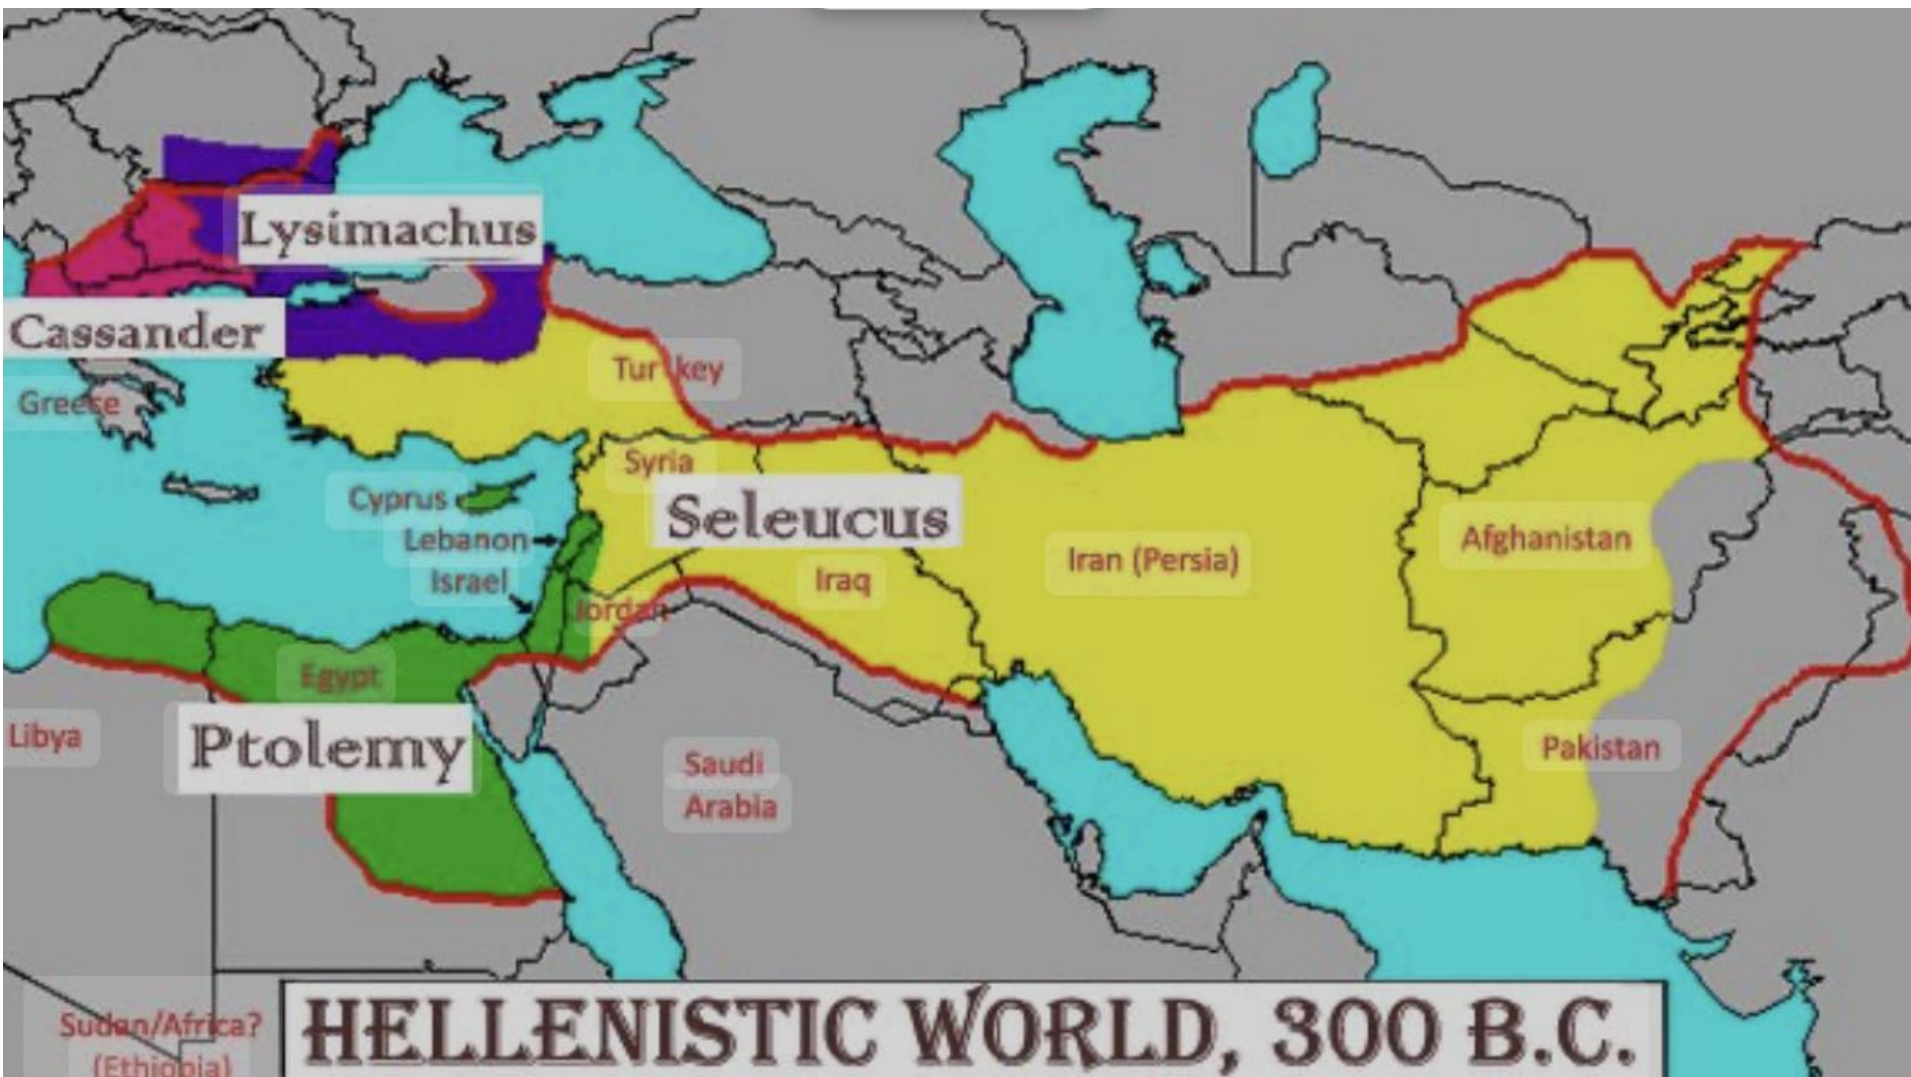

Cyrus invaded Greece (Ionia), 547BC
 Babylon falls to Darius, the Mede, 539BC
 Jews return, ~539-~445 (Nehemiah)
 Esther becomes queen, ~480 BC
 Persia battles Greece, 499-449 BC
 Alexander the Great (356-323 BC)

Introduction to History

Alexander's Empire divided among his four generals

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - To better understand the works of God and praise him for them
  - To help us understand politics, science, war, music, economics, etc.
  - To learn from those who have gone before us
    - their faith
    - their perseverance
    - their contributions
    - their failures and errors
  - To see ourselves as created by God for a purpose in history
  - To help us teach our children
- What is a Turning Point?
- Background of Judean politics
  - Greek control, 333-167 BC
  - Hasmonian Dynasty, c.167-37 BC
    - Maccabean revolt against the Seleucid Empire, 167-164 BC
    - Jews semi-independent until Romans conquered Greece

Introduction to History

- Why Study History?
  - To see ourselves as created by God for a purpose in history
  - To help us teach our children
- What is a Turning Point?
- Background of Judean politics
  - Greek control, 333-167 BC
  - Hasmonian Dynasty, c.167-37 BC
    - Maccabean revolt against the Seleucid Empire, 167
    - Jews semi-independent until Romans conquered Gr
  - Roman government
    - republic, 510-27BC
    - empire 27 B.C., Caesar Augustus

Luke 2:1 In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered.

The Roman Empire

in 117 AD, at its greatest extent

Introduction to History

- Background of Judean politics
    - Greek control, 333-167 BC
    - Hasmonian Dynasty, c.167-37 BC
      - Maccabean revolt against the Seleucid Empire, 167-164 BC
      - Jews semi-independent until Romans conquered Greece
    - Roman government
      - republic, 510-27BC
      - empire 27 B.C., Caesar Aug
      - divided by Diocletian, 285
        - Rome, fell 476
        - Constantinople, fell 1453
-
- A map showing the Roman Empire's extent in the British Isles and surrounding regions. The British Isles are shown in red, with labels for 'Britannia' and 'Lugdunensis'. To the east, 'Belgica' and 'Germania Superior' are also labeled in red. The surrounding sea is labeled 'Mare Germanicum' in blue. The landmasses to the west and east of the Roman territories are shown in yellow.

Introducti

- Background of Judean politics
  - Greek control, 333-167 BC
  - Hasmonian Dynasty, c.167-37 B
    - Maccabean revolt against the Sele
    - Jews semi-independent until Roma
  - Roman government
    - republic, 510-27BC
    - empire 27 B.C., Caesar Augustus
    - divided by Diocletian, 285
      - Rome, fell 476
      - Constantinople, fell 1453
  - Roman control of Judea, 63 BC-
    - Herodian Dynasty 37 BC-100 AD
      - territory (greater Israel)

Introducti

- Background of Judean politics
  - Greek control, 333-167 BC
  - Hasmonian Dynasty, c.167-37 B
    - Maccabean revolt against the Sele
    - Jews semi-independent until Roma
  - Roman government
    - republic, 510-27BC
    - empire 27 B.C., Caesar Augustus
    - divided by Diocletian, 285
      - Rome, fell 476
      - Constantinople, fell 1453
  - Roman control of Judea, 63 BC-
    - Herodian Dynasty 37 BC-100 AD
      - territory (greater Israel)
      - rulers appointed by Rome
        - tasked to pacify the Jews
        - lip service to Jews
        - loyalty to Rome

Introduction

- Background of Judean politics
  - Roman government
    - republic, 510-27BC
    - empire 27 B.C., Caesar Augustus
    - divided by Diocletian, 285
      - Rome, fell 476
      - Constantinople, fell 1453
  - Roman control of Judea, 63 BC-
    - Herodian Dynasty 37 BC-100 AD
      - territory (greater Israel)
      - rulers appointed by Rome
        - tasked to pacify the Jews
        - lip service to Jews
        - loyalty to Rome
      - Jewish rulers (kings/governors)
        - Antipater I (c.113-42 BC)
        - Herod the Great, (72-4BC), 37-4 BC [Jesus born]

Gal. 4:4 But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law,

Introduction

- Background of Judean politics
  - Roman government
    - republic, 510-27BC
    - empire 27 B.C., Caesar Augustus
    - divided by Diocletian, 285
      - Rome, fell 476
      - Constantinople, fell 1453
  - Roman control of Judea, 63 BC-
    - Herodian Dynasty 37 BC-100 AD
      - territory (greater Israel)
      - rulers appointed by Rome
        - tasked to pacify the Jews
        - lip service to Jews
        - loyalty to Rome
      - Jewish rulers (kings/governors)
        - Antipater I (c.113-42 BC)
        - Herod the Great, (72-4BC), 37-4 B

Introduction to H

- Background of Judean politics
  - Roman control of Judea, 63 BC-
  - Herodian Dynasty 37 BC-100 AD
    - territory (greater Israel)
    - rulers appointed by Rome
      - tasked to pacify the Jews
      - lip service to Jews
      - loyalty to Rome
  - Jewish rulers (kings/governors)
    - Antipater I (c.113-42 BC)
    - Herod the Great, (72-4BC), 37-4 BC [Jesus born]
      - Antipater II, (46-4 BC), executed after accused of plot to murder his father
      - Herod Archelaus, (23 BC-c.18 AD) 4 BC-6 AD, Judea, Samaria, and Idumea
      - Philip the Tetrarch (26 BC-34 AD) northeast sector
      - Herod Antipas, (20 BC-39 AD) 6-39 AD, Galilee and Perea [executed John the Baptist, Jesus crucified]

Introduction to History

- Background of Judean politics
  - Roman control of Judea, 63 BC-
    - Herodian Dynasty 37 BC-100 AD
      - territory (greater Israel)
      - rulers appointed by Rome
        - tasked to pacify the Jews
        - lip service to Jews
        - loyalty to Rome
  - Jewish rulers (kings/governors)
    - Antipater I (c.113-42 BC)
    - Herod the Great, (72-4BC), 37-4 BC [Jesus born]
      - Antipater II, (46-4 BC), executed after accused of plot to murder his father
      - Herod Archelaus, (23 BC-c.18 AD) 4 BC-6 AD, Judea, Samaria, and Idumea
      - Philip the Tetrarch (26 BC-34 AD) northeast sector
      - Herod Antipas, (20 BC-39 AD) 6-39 AD, Galilee and Perea [executed John the Baptist, Jesus crucified]
      - Herod Agrippa I, 39-44, Judea [James killed, Peter -> prison; Acts 12:20-23]
    - Herod Agrippa II (55-c.92/100)

Acts 25:13 Now when some days had passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at Caesarea and greeted Festus.

Introduction to History

- Background of Judean politics
  - Roman control of Judea, 63 BC-
    - Jewish rulers (kings/governors)
      - Antipater I (c.113-42 BC)
      - Herod the Great, (72-4BC), 37-4 BC [Jesus born]
        - Antipater II, (46-4 BC), executed after accused of plot to murder his father
        - Herod Archelaus, (23 BC-c.18 AD) 4 BC-6 AD, Judea, Samaria, and Idumea: Mt. 2:22
        - Philip Tetrarch (26 BC-34 AD) northeast sector: Lk. 3:1
        - Herod Antipas/tetrarch, (20 BC-39 AD) 6-39 AD, Galilee and Perea [executed John the Baptist, Jesus crucified]: Mt. 14:1; Lk. 3:1, 19; 9:7; Acts 13:1
        - Herod Agrippa I, 39-44, Judea [James killed, Peter -> prison; Acts 12:20-23]
      - Herod Agrippa II (27-c.92/100), 55-
    - Judean governors
      - Pontius Pilate, 26-36
      - Marcus Antonius Felix, 52-59, according to Josephus, murdered high priest
      - Porcius Festus, 59-61, reasonably good; sends Paul to Rome
      - Lucceius Albinus, 62-64
      - Gessius Florus, 64-66
      - Marcus Antonius Julianus, 66-70

Introduction to History

- Background of Judean politics
  - Roman control of Judea, 63 BC-
  - Judean governors
    - Pontius Pilate, 26-36
    - Marcus Antonius Felix, 52-59, according to Josephus, murdered high priest
    - Porcius Festus, 59-61, reasonably good; sends Paul to Rome
    - Lucceius Albinus, 62-64
    - Gessius Florus, 64-66
    - Marcus Antonius Julianus, 66-70
- Council of Jerusalem

By far the most important event in the entire rise of Christianity was the meeting in Jerusalem in around the year 50, when Paul was granted the authority to convert the Gentiles without them also becoming observant Jews.

Rodney Stark, The Triumph of Christianity, 413.

Introduction to History

- Background of Judean politics
  - Roman control of Judea, 63 BC-
    - Judean governors
      - Pontius Pilate, 26-36
      - Marcus Antonius Felix, 52-59, according to Josephus, murdered high priest
      - Porcius Festus, 59-61, reasonably good; sends Paul to Rome
      - Lucceius Albinus, 62-64
      - Gessius Florus, 64-66
      - Marcus Antonius Julianus, 66-70
- Council of Jerusalem
  - The identity of the church
    - not a Jewish sect
    - roots in Judaism

Introduction to History

- Background of Judean politics
  - Roman control of Judea, 63 BC-
    - Judean governors
      - Pontius Pilate, 26-36
      - Marcus Antonius Felix, 52-59, according to Josephus, murdered high priest
      - Porcius Festus, 59-61, reasonably good; sends Paul to Rome
      - Lucceius Albinus, 62-64
      - Gessius Florus, 64-66
      - Marcus Antonius Julianus, 66-70
- Council of Jerusalem
  - The identity of the church
    - not a Jewish sect
    - roots in Judaism
  - Jews and Gentiles alike are saved by grace of Jesus Christ
    - one did not have to become a Jew first or follow the Law like the Pharisees
    - circumcision not required

Introduction to History

- Council of Jerusalem
  - The identity of the church
    - not a Jewish sect
    - roots in Judaism
  - Jews and Gentiles alike are saved by grace of Jesus Christ
    - one did not have to become a Jew first or follow the Law like the Pharisees
    - circumcision not required
  - As an indication of genuine faith
    - Allusion to the Ten Commandments
      - no idolatry
      - no sexual immorality
    - do not offend Jewish neighbors
      - strangled meat
      - meat with blood

Introduction to History

